

COMMENCED AUG. 8, 1837.

ST. JOHNSBURY, VERMONT, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1904.

VOL. LXVI--NO. 3493

The Berry - Ball

Dry Goods Company.

3 DAYS MORE OF OUR MID-SUMMER SALE

Muslin Underwear

ALL OF OUR ODDS AND ENDS of different garments. Remember it is the famous Home-made Underwear and not a large quantity. Any garment we offer is worth twice the price marked on same.

Corset Covers

1 Big lot of 32 and 34 size. Reg. price .50, .75 and $1.00.

Choice 19c.

1 Lot all sizes. Reg. price .75, 1.00 and 1.25.

Sale 29c.

1 Lot all sizes. Big values.

38c.

1 Lot Fancy Covers. Reg. price 2.00.

Sale 88c.

Night Robes

Short sleeves and long sleeves. Reg. price 1.75 and 2.75.

Sale 1.19

1 Lot good quality hemstitched.

59c.

1 Lot embroidery trimmed. Good 1.25 garment.

98c.

1 Lot short sleeves, Kimona style. Reg. 1.75 and 2.50.

Sale 1.28

Drawers

1 Lot plain hemstitched ruffle.

29c.

1 Lot Lace and Embroidery trimmed. Reg. price 1.50 and 1.75.

Sale 79c.

Long Skirts

55c to $1.98

Chemises

Sale closes Saturday night.

Store closed all day Monday, July 4th.

The Berry-Ball Dry Goods Co.

The LATEST in BABY PHOTOS at REED'S

59 R. R. St.

COLD WATER !!!

Get all of it you can on the outside in hot weather. It cools the blood, opens the pores, calms the nerves and is invigorating.

Attachable Shower Baths, Sponges--all varieties, Absorbent Rough Towels, Brushes--many different handles, Violet Amonia, Soaps--all kinds, Toilet Powders--all kinds.

SPECIALLY LOW PRICES on any of These Goods.

Come, Send, Write or Telephone

C. A. CURRIER & CO.,

Apothecaries.

NEXT MONDAY being the FOURTH, our store will close at 10.30 a. m. for the entire day.

FRATERNITY MEETINGS.

Haswell Royal Arch Chapter, No. 11. Stated Convocation, Friday evening, July 1. LEIGHTON P. SLACK, H. P. DELOS M. BACON, Secretary.

Passumpsic Lodge, No. 27, F. and A. M. Regular Communication, Thursday evening, July 21. GEORGE F. CHENEY, W. M. DELOS M. BACON, Secretary.

Palestine Commandery, No. 5, K. T. Stated Conclave Tuesday eve., July 19. W. S. BOYNTON, Commander. DELOS M. BACON, Recorder.

Sheridan Council, Knights of Columbus. Regular meetings are held the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month in Citizens Bank building, second floor. D. H. HEALY, Grand Knight. CHAS. T. LYNCH, Rec. Sec.

Knight of Pythias. Regular Convention of Apollo Lodge, No. 2, Tuesday evening, July 5. H. W. ELLIS, K. R. S. NED C. STILES, C. C.

NEW ADS. THIS WEEK.

St. Johnsbury Academy. If You Want a Home--G. J. Hawes. Probate of Will--Mrs. E. W. Blodgett's Est. Probate of Will--Elijah D. Blodgett's Est. Pres. of Account--George W. Varney's Est. Seven Specials--L. P. Leach. Locomobile for Sale. House for Sale. Hammock house for Sale. Bargains in Millinery.

Saturday Closing.

During the summer months the Caledonian office will be closed on Saturdays at noon and our patrons and friends are kindly requested to bear this fact in mind.

THE CALEDONIAN COMPANY.

LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—D. Q. Woodruff has a strawberry bed this year that he may well be proud of. He has all kinds of strawberries growing unusually large. Many measure four inches in circumference, and one was found that measured four and one-half inches. He would like to know if any one can give a better report.

—Miss Frances M. Ross, who was graduated from the New England Conservatory of Music last week, has returned home, and will receive pupils in organ and piano at 12 Main street.

—The July meeting of the Woman's Club will be held on Monday, July 11, when Judge Henry C. Bates will speak on the Philippines.

—F. O. Clark is closing out a lot of good stationery at half price. Call and see it.

—The democratic county convention will be held in the Town hall Thursday of this week beginning at 10 o'clock.

—Austin Morrill has added to his livery equipment a new rubber tired back.

—The North church Sunday school are planning to have a picnic at Joe's Pond the second week in July.

St. Johnsbury Academy

Will Occupy This Space for the present with new matter each week.

It will BE OF INTEREST and will Pay You to Read It.

New Catalogue now ready.

CLAPBOARDS

Are Still Scarce and High.

Demand exceeds supply, that's why. We ordered early. Got 1½ Cars to sell for $10.00, 12.50, 15.00, 17.00, 19.50, 21.50, 22.50.

DO YOU NEED ANY? BETTER NOT WAIT.

Follensby & Peck.

David Harum warranted

"she would go better at the end of the drive than at the beginning." If we could show our goods the last end first, the full force, quality, power and importance of an Endowment Insurance would be manifest without words or literature. 56th year, doing business in 36 States. Nat'l Life Ins. Co. of Vt. (Mutual.) ORGANIZED 1850.

W. W. SPRAGUE, Gen. Agent for Northeastern Vermont, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

—The United Commercial Travellers held a basket picnic at Lake St. Joseph, Saturday, about 100 being present. The party left here about 11 o'clock on a special and after dinner a ball game was had between the Sample Cases and the Trunks, the Trunks winning by the score of 11 to 10. The game was close, the score being a tie until the ninth inning. After the game boating and dancing was indulged in until 10 o'clock. A part of the St. Johnsbury band furnished the music.

—The closing dance of Miss Brock's Barton dancing class will be given Friday night. Mrs. Brock's orchestra will furnish music.

—The social dance to be given to Miss Brock's dancing class and their friends at K. P. Hall, Thursday has been postponed until later in the season.

—The ladies of the Free Baptist church will serve a supper in the vestry, Thursday from 6 o'clock until all are served. All are invited.

—F. O. Clark, wishing to close out his entire stock of Fourth of July goods, will make very low prices on them.

—Beginning July 3 the New York Sunday Herald, World and Journal will arrive on the Quebec express at 6.10 a. m., and be on sale at Allison & Davie's and F. O. Clark's. The Boston Journal and Post will arrive on the "air line" at 4 p. m., and be on sale at the same stores.

—The World Today has been reduced to 10 cents a copy. For sale at F. O. Clark's.

—United States Post Office Inspector Rapp made an official visit to St. Johnsbury Tuesday.

—Don C. Stiles, the local representative of Hearst's Boston American, has arranged that the price of the Sunday edition shall be fixed at five cents.

—The first heavy shower of the season struck this village Saturday afternoon and was accompanied by a severe thunder storm. During the storm lightning struck at H. R. White's place above Padock Village and the corner of the steeple of the Church of the Messiah. At the latter place the shingles and some of the clapboards were splintered, but no serious damage was done.

—The village trustees have begun to macadamize Winter street.

—The Standard Bottling Works of St. Johnsbury have the agency for the Bromo-Hygiea table water of Coldwater, Mich., and will deliver it to residents of the village, on request. This is prepared especially for family use and combines purity with invigorating properties.

—By the will of Mrs. N. P. Bowman the First Baptist church, of which she was a member, receives a bequest of $400 and Sunset Home a bequest of $200.

—The offices of E. T. & H. K. Ide and Moore & Co. are to be closed every day except Saturdays at 6 o'clock.

—Charles T. Ranlet has bought the old livery stable on Eastern avenue, now occupied by Weeks & Hovey, and expects to move his printing plant there in the early fall. He will use the basement of the building for an automobile storehouse.

—By the change of time on the railroads, which went into effect Monday, St. Johnsbury gets a new mail. This summer the Quebec-New York train carries a closed pouch to the larger points below Wells River to New York and brings up in the early morning mail from the same places. By this arrangement the New York evening papers and letters from the metropolis arrive as soon as mail matter from Boston.

A Pink Tea at Homoriet.

The doors of the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Eastman were thrown open to a company of their friends Monday evening when a pink tea was served on the lawn, the hostesses being Mrs. Eastman, Mrs. F. G. Bundy, Mrs. George H. Cross, Mrs. Herbert F. Balch and Mrs. Anna D. Pearl. A delicious supper was served after which there was an hour of postprandial exercises, adjournment being taken to the house under the light of the full moon. Arthur F. Stone was toastmaster and responses were given by Judge Henry C. Bates, Harry M. Cross, P. F. Hazen, A. B. Noyes and Robert Mackinnon, the latter speaking on hospitality and closing with the thought that the best definition of the word hospitality was "Homoriet." Miss Anna Mac Somerville interspersed the speechmaking with most enjoyable solos.

Hospital Aid Association.

At the quarterly meeting of the Brightlook Hospital Aid association, held at the hospital, Monday afternoon, the following committees were appointed:

Sewing—Mrs. B. F. Weeks, Mrs. Abijah Smith, Mrs. W. E. Kellogg, Mrs. Carl E. Gray, Miss Margaret Stuart.

Flower and Vegetable—Mrs. D. D. Patterson, Mrs. T. C. Fletcher, Mrs. Henry F. Eatabrooks.

Reading—Mrs. William C. Tyler, Miss Maude Sprague, Mrs. Arthur F. Stone.

SILVER JUBILEE.

The Celebration of the St. Joseph Convent.

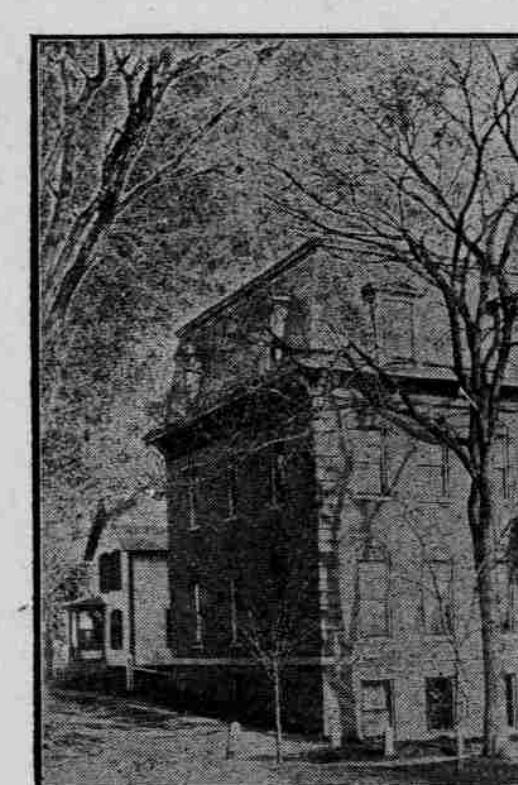

The CALEDONIAN contained a brief mention last week of the 25th anniversary of the convent on June 21.

Revs. Fr. Pontbriand from Lyndonville and Riley from Littleton assisted Rev. Fr. Boissonault at high mass at the church last week Tuesday morning.

Over 300, including present and former pupils of the Convent, marched in a body from the convent to Music Hall, Tuesday evening, where they were met by the band, which escorted them into the hall. The concert was very well given, special mention being deserved by Misses Mamie Gauthier and Leonie Prevost, who gave several selections on violins, accompanied by pianos. Also Bourgeois, and entirely devoted to education. At present the community number 1300 Sisters, 112 missions in Canada and the United States, with a regular attendance in the different establishments of over 28,000 pupils. Sister St. Edward, the first Superior, with her two assistants, opened the classes here in September of the same year. It was soon found that, owing to the increasing number of pupils, a larger building must be provided, so for this purpose the property of Mr. Lamere was bought and in November, 1882, the Sisters took possession of the spacious brick building known as Mount St. Joseph which was erected at a cost of over $25,000. Since the opening of the classes the number of pupils has increased steadily and today the average attendance is 180, with eight Sisters and one secular teacher. Miss Valeria Chesnez, who has charge of the primary class.

During the 25 years' existence of Mount St. Joseph 53 pupils have been graduated from its classes.

by Miss Emma Lavigne in vocal solo work, her clear and perfect voice bringing forth generous applause. Graduating honors were awarded to Miss Graziella Dutille, who received an extra prize in music; and to Miss Aurea Lapanne, who received an extra prize for constant attendance, not having been absent a day during the year. Addresses were given by the members of the alumni, Miss Lillian Ryan and Miss Olive Dumas. The prize in elocution was awarded to Miss Mary Louise Turgeon. Nine young ladies had equal honors in this contest, which was held a few weeks ago, but Miss Turgeon was the recipient of the prize. Moore's band furnished occasional music during the evening. The offering from present and former pupils amounted to over $500. The lawn party intended to be held on the convent grounds Wednesday evening, was held in St. Agnes Hall, and was a very pleasant occasion. During the

Married in June.

The Wedding at the South Church.

The most brilliant wedding of the season was solemnized at the South church last evening, when Miss Ethel F., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orrin S. Abbott, was married to Dr. David Eugene Harriman of South Hadley Falls, Mass. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Extending clear across the room was a solid bank of ferns, flanked with potted palms, while in front the effect of the green was heightened by roses and peonies, the prevailing colors being red and white. Before the bridal party entered to the strains of Wagner's wedding march from Lohengrin the following musical program was rendered by B. Frank Harris:

Overture in F. Le Cygne. Vincent
Valse--Serenade. Volkman
Wedding Song. Parker
Gavotte. Thomas
Cantilene Nuptiale. Dubois
Prelude to 3rd Act--Lohengrin. Wagner

The church was filled with invited guests and the following gentlemen served as ushers: William T. Abbott of Chicago, Guy H. Abbott of Lowell, Mass., Dr. Frank A. Woods of Holyoke, Mass., Dr. G. W. Hubbard of South Hadley, Dr. Charles J. Bartlett and L. H. Lamb of South Hadley Falls, Carl J. Green and Berton I. Staples of St. Johnsbury. Promptly at 8 o'clock the bridal party advanced to the altar. The groom, accompanied by Dr. George D. Henderson of Holyoke, the best man, entered from the south aisle; the bride's brothers, William T. and Guy H. Abbott, followed by the bride's sister, Miss Ellen Abbott, as maid of honor, and the bride leaning on the arm of her father, advanced up the north aisle. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. Dr. S. G. Barnes. The bride was charmingly gowned in white peau de crepe with Duchesse rose point lace yoke and trimmings. She wore a veil fastened with rose buds and myrtle, carrying in her hand a beautiful bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor was handsomely gowned in light blue peau de crepe and carried a bouquet of red roses.

Following the ceremony at the church a reception was held at the house which was largely attended. The guests were received at the door by Master Harold Abbott and the ushers upstairs were Miss Elizabeth Pettigrew and Miss Evelyn Odlin. The Pearl street home was beautifully decorated with a profusion of the gorgeous mountain laurel, peonies and roses. The guests were received by the bride and groom, Miss Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. Mary Harriman of St. Johnsbury Centre, the mother of the groom, and all extended hearty congratulations. Delicious refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake were served in the dining room by Misses Louise Tyler, Habel Gaskill, Margaret Hazen and Hortense Peters. This room was attractively trimmed with red and white carnations. Punch was served in the sitting room by Miss Virginia Perry from Melrose. The bride was the recipient of an unusually large number of elegant and useful presents, including cut glass, china, sterling silver and gold. The gift from the South church, where the bride has been for so long the soprano soloist, was a complete set of silver spoons. The groom was a former resident of this town who is now a successful physician in the Bay state, and the bride is one of St. Johnsbury's most popular young ladies. They have a host of friends who extend to them congratulations for many years of happiness and prosperity. Dr. and Mrs. Harriman left last night for a wedding trip and will be "at home" at South Hadley Falls after Sept. 1.

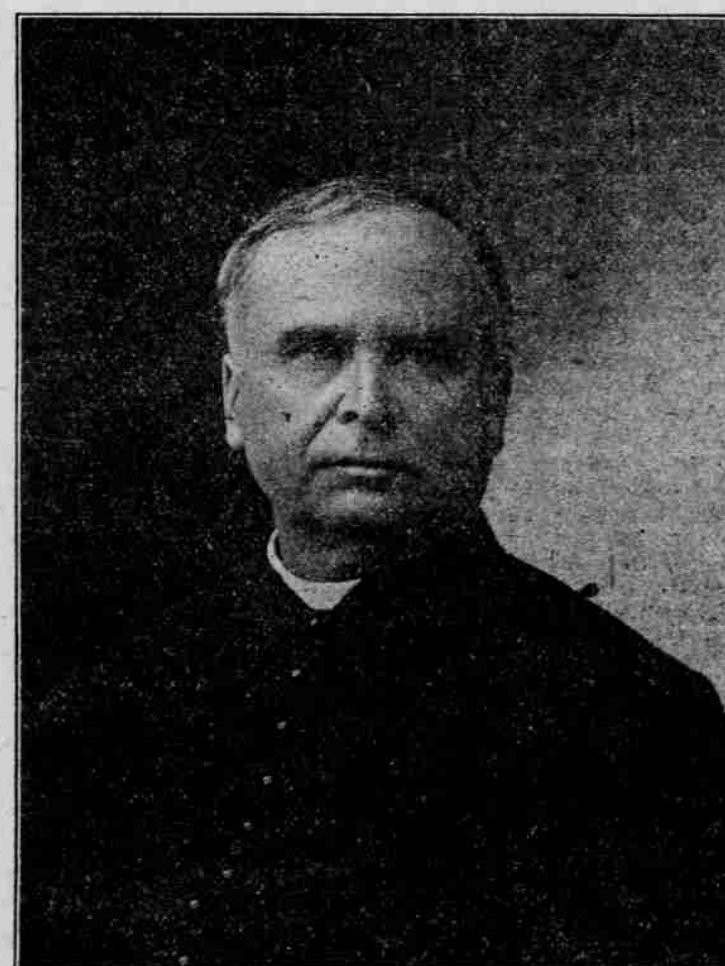

Among the friends and relatives from out of town were William T. Abbott of Chicago, Guy H. Abbott of Lowell, Mass., Dr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bartlett, L. H. Lamb and Mrs. Laura A. Harvey of South Hadley Falls, Dr. George B. Henderson, Dr. Frank A. Woods and Miss West from Holyoke, Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Hubbard from South Hadley, Judge and Mrs. Arthur F. Odlin, Lawrence and Miss Evelyn Odlin from Manila, F. Sweeney, R. H. Sherwin, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Hale and Miss Adine Hale, Col. and Mrs. Brastus Baldwin, Hammond and Miss Bernice Baldwin from Wells River, Mrs. H. A. Moore from Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard from Montpelier, Miss Edith H. Wallace from Barre.

Washburne-Russell. A quiet wedding was solemnized on Wednesday of last week at one o'clock, at Providence, R. I., when Miss Florence M. Russell formerly of this town was united in marriage to Harry Osbert Washburne of Bayonne, N. J. The ceremony was performed in the Central Congregational church by the pastor, Rev. Edward Sanderson the Episcopal double ring service being used, and was witnessed by a few relatives and intimate friends. The bride was becomingly gowned in tan voile and wore a Paris hat.

Miss Grace A. Balch of Providence was maid of honor and Theodore N. Wood of Middleboro, Mass., a Dartmouth classmate of Mr. Washburne's acted as best man. The bridesmaid was dressed in blue foulard and wore a light hat. After the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of Mr. Sanderson, where the friends had an opportunity of expressing their congratulations and good wishes to the newly wedded pair.

Following the reception a wedding lunch was given at "Hotel Newman", and in the late afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Washburne left Providence for their home [Continued on Fourth Page.]

Next Sunday at the Church of the Messiah the pastor will preach at the morning service. Topic, "Freedom as an Achievement."

evening Rev. J. A. Boissonault gave a pleasant surprise in the form of fireworks.

Among the former pupils who were present at the silver jubilee were: Mrs. Painchand, Lebanon, N. H.; Mrs. Theo Ravanelle, New Market, N. H.; Mrs. Girard and Mrs. Lemercier, Montreal, P. Q.; Mrs. Poitras, Lacadie, P. Q.; Mrs. Raiche, Mrs. Trotter, Hanover, N. H.; Mrs. Carignon, Pennacook, N. H.; Mrs. Bilodeau, Misses A. Bilodeau and L. Watchie, Lyndonville; Mary, Emily and Lizzie Lafamme, Littleton, N. H.; Margaret and Katie Cassidy, Fitchburg, Mass.; E. Goss and G. Demers, Barton; M. Sawyer, Plymouth, N. H.; J. Gadelle, M. Wilson, Montreal; B. Aborn, Boston, Mass.; M. Aubin, Sandford, Me.; Mrs. Leclerc, Littleton, N. H.; M. Browne, Manchester, N. H.

SKETCH OF MOUNT ST. JOSEPH.

In 1879 Rev. J. A. Boissonault bought the property now owned by Dr. W. J. Aldrich to found a school for girls, which he placed under the direction of the Sisters of the Congregation of Notre Dame, a community founded in Montreal, over 250 years ago, by the venerable Mother